

ECUMEN Nondiscrimination Notice and Language Assistance

Ecumen complies with applicable Federal and State civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, gender, familial status or protected veteran status. Ecumen does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, gender, familial status or protected veteran status.

ATTENTION: If you speak a language other than English, language assistance services, free of charge, are available to you. If you need these services, contact the Clinical Director at the Ecumen community; Ecumen Home Care or Ecumen Hospice that is providing services to you.

Ecumen:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you believe that Ecumen has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, gender, familial status or protected veteran status you can file a grievance. You can file a grievance in person at an Ecumen community, Ecumen Home Care or Ecumen Hospice; online at (<https://www.ecumenconnect.org>); by phone (1-844-614-2498); by fax (1-800-232-9236), or email (info@getintouch.com). If you need help filing a grievance, contact Ecumen Compliance Officer, 3530 Lexington Ave. N, Shoreview, MN 55126 or by calling 1-651-766-4300.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
